Adaline has always been mesmerized by the glowing licking colors of the flames. Until that day which she learned to control them, her life never really had begun. When her and her brother Zehn get a call from the police stating their house was burned and their parents are dead, they make a promise to each other to make the arsonist pay. Eventually they discover that with each other anything is possible. Will they be able to avenge the death of their parents? Or will it be more than just their parent's lives that have been put in harms way which need saving?
