Who Do You Say I Am?: The Betrayal & Crucifixion of Louis Farrakhan Michael T. Muhammad

This is the first of two book covers offered with the 2014 revised edition of "Who Do You Say I Am?: The Betrayal and Crucifixion of Louis Farrakhan". The Honorable Minister Louis Farrakhan is a man who is greatly misunderstood by a population unacquainted with him or the work of his teacher, the Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad. But, there is a growing community of people of all races who have come to learn of his tremendous value to Blacks and to humanity. Louis Farrakhan's value to the world can be credited to his tireless work for Peace and PERFECT Love for Allah (God) and the Honorable Elijah Muhammad. This can be seen in the prophecies of both the Bible and Holy Quran. Minister Louis Farrakhan announced to the world in 1981 that the Honorable Elijah Muhammad is physically alive. For this bold claim he is called crazy. He had a vision-experience on September 17, 1985, where he was taken up on the Mother Plane (so-called UFO), and spoke to the Honorable Elijah Muhammad. It is the testimony of his experience on the Mother Plane and his bearing of witness to the Honorable Elijah Muhammad as the Exalted Christ that challenges the wicked of this world. In the midst of all the controversy surrounding Louis Farrakhan and the Nation of Islam, the public wants to know: Who is Louis Farrakhan? Was Farrakhan's experience real? If so, how did it happen? Can he and his experience be found in the scriptures; Bible and Holy Quran? Is Elijah Muhammad physically alive? Will Farrakhan go to the Mother Plane again to meet with the Honorable Elijah Muhammad? These are just a few questions among countless that people have thought and have discussed regarding Louis Farrakhan. Who Do You Say I Am?: The Betrayal and Crucifixion of Louis Farrakhan, will provide some of those answers.
