John and Angelina would seize any educational opportunities or ask me to try them. They believe that education is a suit of armor which may help me defend everything, including the deep-rooted racialism in Birmingham and even in the United States. My parents think that if you are twice excellent than them, they may still not like you, but they must respect you. Being a sacrificial lamb helplessly is the most terrible thing; so my parents try their best to get rid of the situation; furthermore, they hope me to get rid of that situation. And education it the best way to become the best.
