The Longest Winter: The Battle of the Bulge and the Epic Story of WWII's Most Decorated Platoon

Alex Kershaw

December 1944: Deep in the Ardennes forest, a platoon of eighteen men under the command of twenty year old lieutenant Lyle Bouck huddle in their foxholes. Under attack and vastly outnumbered, they repulse three German assaults in a fierce day long battle, killing over five hundred Germans. Only when Bouck s men run out of ammunition do they surrender. As POWs, Bouck s platoon experience an ordeal far worse than combat: trigger-happy German guards, Allied bombing raids, and a daily ration of thin soup. Somehow, the men of Bouck s platoon all miraculously survive. Alex Kershaw brings to life the story of America s most decorated small unit of the war, and one of the most inspiring stories in American history."
