An elaborate trap is set for The Caller, but he's two steps ahead of the detectives. As the drama unfolds, it's unclear who can be trusted. When it appears The Caller will get away once again, lead detective Dix and his sidekick Petersen exhaust everything they have in an effort to capture the criminal mastermind.

Off-duty detective sergeants Bill Dix and Steve Petersen find themselves in the middle of a jaw dropping firefight... in broad daylight...on their way to watch a baseball game. The two can't believe their luck as this is the second vacation they've taken together that's turned out horribly wrong.

There's plenty of finger pointing and speculation regarding their involvement in a complex investigation including drugs and gun smuggling for terrorist cells...all within the United States. Dix wants to head back to Florida, while Petersen seems to have struck up a relationship interest trying to rebound from an ugly divorce. Whatever it is they've stumbled upon, dead bodies are showing up and Dix gets the sense no one is telling the truth.

Dix and Petersen join forces with the locals and try to save one man from being hunted down and work frantically to figure out who's hunting him and why? Being away from home proves to be extremely challenging for both detectives making the case extremely difficult. Who ends up surviving? And, when Dix crosses paths with the mastermind, do either of them live long enough to talk about it?
