To coincide with the 200th anniversary of the publication of Pride & Prejudice, here are all Jane Austen's novels in one complete edition with wonderful period illustrations and images from her life. Read these great romance novels as they were meant to be read.

'The greatest romance writer of all time, witty and real, superb characters and dialogue. Excellent value for money and brilliant reading. Properly formatted for kindle.' Literary Classics

"My favourite writer is Jane Austen, and I've read all her books so many times I've lost count." J. K. Rowling

"While the English language is read, the world will always be provided with souls who can enjoy the rare excellence of that rich legacy left to them by her genius." The Atlantic

"Six novels and six entirely different love stories . . . Like Shakespeare, with each new work Austen seemed to react against an earlier one. Having created the most archly amusing woman in fiction in Pride and Prejudice, she built the next book, Mansfield Park, around a heroine who must spend much of the time being silent." John Mullan, The Guardian
