The People's New Deal highlights the global movement of social entrepreneurship and some of the leading organizations that are advancing this citizen sector movement. While looking at this social trend in the context of a larger global transition humanity is currently going through, the volume also presents examples of innovative individuals that are tackling major social problems and triggering systemic change. While the New Deal in the 1930's was elaborate and implemented by government to mitigate the economic crisis, social entrepreneurship can be regarded as a People's New Deal, originating from the citizen sector. The People's New Deal is a powerful initiative of the 21st century to complement governmental economic stimulus and recovery packages.
