Perfect for beginners, children and anyone interested in classic stories, this book allows you to master dozens of new words in a matter of minutes. Immersion reading is a fun supplement to your regular language training activities, however, no previous knowledge of the target language is required to enjoy Warm Bath Books. More advanced readers should look for us in the future, as we begin offering longer, more complex works to help you continue your reading adventure. For now, we are excited about joining you as you take your first, and most crucial, steps into learning a language.

Language Immersion Reading

Immersion Reading is the best way to dive into that new language you always wanted to learn. Our books start with a classic story written in your primary language, but as the story progresses we gradually weave more and more words from your target language directly into the text. That way the context and imagery of the story help you understand and remember the new vocabulary. This proven method is recognized by both educators and language experts as one of the most effective ways to acquire a new language. Immersion Reading is fun and easy, so pick up a book and start learning today!

About Us

Warm Bath Books is dedicated to making learning a new language fun and exciting by transforming your favorite stories into language immersion adventures. Using a combination of highly sophisticated software and well-trained bilingual editors we create unique hybrid texts that maximize comprehension and retention without compromising the flow and excitement of the story. Our stories keep you engaged in the learning process unlike tedious flashcards, textbook exercises, and vocabulary drills. Our books cost just a fraction of the price of most educational tools and language courses. For more information, visit us online at warmbathbooks.com. We sincerely hope you enjoy discovering a new language with Warm Bath Books.

Happy Reading!
