The award-winning Dragoon Saga continues its tale of friendship, betrayal, and explosive magic.

Seven months ago nineteen-year-old Iren Saitosan saved the continent of Raa, but victory had its price: his Dragoon transformation left him unable to use magic. In a culture that relies on spells even to open doors, the impairment has crippled him. Unwilling to live dependent on his friend Minawë, Iren departs in search of a cure.

Meanwhile, Minawë faces a greater loss. She had to watch her mother's murder, and she has yet to overcome her grief.

She will have to find the strength to move on, though, because a ruthless pair is hunting Iren. They know about the Dragoon, and they'll stop at nothing to gain its power. If they succeed, they'll plunge Raa into its most devastating war in a thousand years. Only Minawë can rescue Iren before that happens. But even if she finds him in time, a secret from the past may turn him against her.

"A fantasy sequel with well-developed characters that doesn't disappoint." - Kirkus Reviews
