India Bousa tells a harmless lie on the plane ride that will take her back to school for her January semester. She meets a gorgeous older woman and trying to impress her, she lies about her age... by about nine years. It's not the only lie under India's belt. She's been hiding her fellowship rejection letters from her family for weeks.

Jessica John sweeps India into a world where she can forget all the minute troubles of a college student. Jessica is a sexy entrepreneur who lives a glamorous life by the seat of her pants. She's vivacious and open about her sexuality in ways India is unfamiliar with.

While they hit it off, the various deceptions between them start to strain their ability to be happy with each other. Jessica's business hangs in the balance thanks to a business partner desperate to "turn her straight" and India's entire life feels like it's falling apart.

They are each other's calm in a storm but as the winds get stronger, will they be blown apart?

Can the damage their lies have done ever be mended or have they both sacrificed a chance at love for the sake of protecting themselves...

Take a look inside to find out more...
