Money and Mind talks about the invention of money from barter to the current money system. It also sheds light on the mysterious Federal Reserve System that everyone thinks of as being a Federal institution and takes a closer look on the famous gold depository, Fort Knox. In an unbiased way, Money and Mind tells the real truth of our monetary system. The book reveals the secrets on the one dollar bill and explains how banks came about. Money and Mind, in the second half, talks about the mind and explains how the human brain works and explains the liaison between the mind and money. The book brings to light how every person can change his life to the better taking advantage of some simple physical laws that are not taught in schools or universities. Thought Money and Mind does not talk about anger management, it teaches the reader how to stay away from anger and how to change negative attitude in life in positive attitude.
