Robyn Phillips has always led a low-key lifestyle but that all changed when she and Devin Jamison went from being good friends to secret lovers. After a brief -but hot- romance and bitter break-up, she finds out that she's pregnant. With their families' Christmas celebration coming up, Robyn decides to keep the baby a secret. After all, she and Devin are not on speaking terms...and no one in their families even knows that they were together! Of course she knows she'll have to confess sooner or later but she's nowhere near ready to.

Although it's been weeks since he and Robyn stopped seeing each other, Devin hasn't been able to get her out of his mind. Feeling like breaking up might have been a mistake, he wonders if their Christmas reunion will open up the door for them to become friends again or even get back together. He knows he has a challenge ahead of him since she won't even talk to him but he's determined to salvage some kind of relationship.

Being stuck in a house with your entire family -and close family friends- can be stressful for anyone with a broken heart. Robyn's about to be put to the test as she tries to hide her love for Devin and hide her baby secret.
