NY Times & USA Today Bestselling Author ** Security specialist, Brielle Chapman reluctantly agrees to help her uncle by going undercover as a contestant on the Meet Your Mate reality show. Having nearly failed on a similar assignment, she needs to prove she still has a future in the business. But her job becomes harder when the brother of the groom turns out to be Dodger, the only one-nighter she ever had and back when she'd been in disguise from a prior undercover case. Will he recognize her? And how can she investigate with this sizzling attraction fogging her brain? Former Army Ranger Captain Jack 'Dodger' Anderson would rather run naked through a minefield in the Afghan desert than participate in a reality television show, but when his groom brother begins to receive threats, Jack quickly becomes his sibling's shadow. As if the investigation isn't baffling enough, now he has to contend with the addition of a beautiful and vaguely familiar new contestant. But when deceptions come to light and the case takes a heart-stopping turn, Meet Your Mate becomes a whole other kind of reality for both of them. *Previously released as Meet Your Mate. Revamped with over 22k words added. Heat level upped to Hot.*
