Some secrets are too big to stay buried.

Nina Kasai will do anything to keep her past a secret. Seventeen years ago, she fled her affluent suburban home and vowed never to return. The horrifying truth was buried within the pages of her hidden diary, and in the mind of a disturbed woman who would never tell.

Flash forward to present day—Nina is now a happily married, and successful executive living in Boston. When she lands the cover of a prestigious business magazine however, she can no longer hide from the powerful enemy she escaped. Phillip Copeland wants to be the next governor of Massachusetts, and warns Nina to keep quiet about what happened all those years ago or else.

As the stakes are raised, Nina realizes the only way to win this game is to tell the truth. But who will believe her when her diary has gone missing, and the only other witness has been permanently silenced? To reclaim her life and confront the past she's been running from, Nina makes a gut-wrenching decision that leads to a dramatic courtroom showdown, and a stunning verdict that leaves multiple casualties in its wake.
