She's running from the past and an enemy who won't stop hunting her until she's dead. He's determined to avoid a future that includes taking a bride and adapting her to become a vampire's mate. But the wolves that are an integral part of them both have a different idea—and the tarot cards don't lie.

Death. Strength. The Emperor. Dakotah and Domino are destined to be together.

Please note: A previous edition of this story was published by Ellora's Cave. It has been extensively revised for this edition.
