When Annie Dooley discovers the cactus-filled white vase in the bathroom of her new home is actually a bidet she's astounded. Why? Annie started life as a foster child, raised in a trailer park – trailers don't come equipped with bidets.

Now married to the rich, powerful man of her dreams, her discovery becomes a symbol of the hope she has of joining his world. Insecure until now, her spitfire spirit ignites. She makes up her mind to throw a party, but not just any party. Annie decides she and her husband will host a high-society wine tasting.

The biggest problem is – Annie has to convince herself she's good enough for the social set. Read Let Me Entertain You to find out if Annie's wickedly entertaining trip through life ends in success.
